Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS
(SHRI HARIBHAI PARATHIBHAI CHAUDHARY)

(a) to (e): Delhi Police has reported that a child adoption racket run by NGO, namely, Rashtriya Janhit Jansewa Sansthan (not registered) and operating from Flat No. 451, Bharat Apartment, Sector 16B, Dwarka, Delhi, has been unearthed. In this regard, Delhi Police has registered a case vide FIR No. 449/2015 dated 08.06.2015, PS Dwarka North, Delhi and arrested 08 accused persons. Investigations revealed that 25 children were procured by unscrupulous means and offered for adoption to childless couples in exchange for money. The parents who adopted them are from different states. As per the investigation conducted, biological parents of 13 children have been traced and none of these children were stolen. However, investigation is on to locate the biological parents of the remaining 12 children.
